The 2 winners of the 3x5 American flag were Deb Saltis from Vermilion & Mary Sluder from North Ridgeville. We want to thank American Patriot Flags, Jack Bracken, for donating the flags for our Fair Booth give-away

Mary Beth Derikito made a motion for the LCTA to support the LCCC-Issue 17-2nd. Chad Parsons-motion carried

Neil Lynch, Executive Committeeman, explained the lawsuit that Medina County is experiencing on road conditions. After discussion, Orrin Leimbach made a motion to join the OTA in filing a brief with the Ohio Supreme Court, supporting the belief that the case of Raymond Sanderbeck V County of Medina, etal, was wrongly decided by the 9th. Appellate District, Case # 09CA0051-M

Neil then brought up the Storm Water fee of $18.00 for Townships. There have been articles in 3 of the newspapers concerning this. Questions that we have are: What is the money being used for & what fund is the money going into. Jerry Innes, from the Prosecutors Office, explained that the Cities & Villages are paying it now & the Townships are benefiting from it through the Engineers office. There are supposed to be open meetings on the subject, Jerry thinks that the first one will be on Oct. 4th. at the Airport. There will be notices sent out & it will be in the newspapers as to when & where the meeting will take place.
